Description

Four Moon Tavern is your neighborhood bar, even if Roscoe Village isn't your neighborhood. It features 31 beers, much-better-than-average bar food, a pool table, Saturday and Sunday brunches and a kickin' juke box, along with a cozy, warm wood-paneled atmosphere and friendly service. Food runs the gamut from Chicago favorites pierogis and savory veal bratwurst to comfort food like meatloaf and sloppy joes to lasagna, gyros and hummus plates. For brews, try BBK German ale, which goes down nice and easy in a large cold mug. Daily food and drink specials offer varied choices for good prices, at less than $10 an entree. Brunch runs the gamut from everyday eggs to Southern-style biscuits and gravy and more sophisticated quiches. An excellent place to meet with friends or watch TV with a casual tavern atmosphere and enough class to make it a pleasant place to take a date or the family. (Claire Zulkey)
